OBJECTION OF ANVIL BUILDERS TO MOTION FOR AUTHORITY TO SELL
PERSONAL PROPERTY [DOC# 97]

17 I. INTRODUCTION

18
19 The objecting creditor Anvil Builders (“Anvil”) has a valid UCC-1 recorded against all assets
20 of the Debtor securing a debt in the amount of not less than $4.6 million. The Debtor’s proposed 21 sale under Bankruptcy Code § 363(b) does not sell free and clear of liens: creditor’s lien against the 22 Equipment will survive the sale. First, it is unimaginable that the Buyer knows the Equipment will 23 be subject to Anvil’s lien. Anvil raises this objection to put the Buyer on notice that its purchase will 24 be subject to Anvil’s lien and after the sale Anvil may exercise its state law remedies with respect to 25 the Equipment. Second, Anvil objects to the Debtor’s use of any proceeds from the sale to do
26 anything other than pay secured creditors of the Debtor senior to Anvil and only once that priority 27 has been established. Third, Anvil is concerned the process leading to this sale – which based on the 28 record in support of the Motion is no process whatever – did not result in a transaction that satisfies

1 Bankruptcy Code § 363(b). Initially, the sale appears to be to the current employer of a principal of 2 the Debtor and his child (a fact not disclosed anywhere in the Motion) without any evidence 3 whatsoever that the sale price is fair and reasonable, that it was subject to adequate marketing, and 4 that it was the product of an arms-length negotiation. In other words, there's insufficient evidence to 5 support a sale at this price to the Buyer. Beyond the failure of diligence on the sale, the Equipment
6 is subject to Anvil's security interest perfected by a recorded UCC-1 and the sale does not sell free
7 and clear of Anvil's lien nor does the sale purport to have Anvil's lien attach to the proceeds. This 8 Motion should not be granted.

9 II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

10 Anvil entered into a line of credit and security agreement (the "LOC") with the Debtor and in 11 connection therewith advanced significant sums to the Debtor. A UCC-1 was recorded, a copy of 12 which is attached as Exhibit 1. As of shortly before the petition date, the Debtor owed 13 approximately $4.6 million on the LOC.

14 The Debtor proposes to sell the following equipment: 2020 Bandit 18XP Chipper; 2010
15 Bandit 19XP Chipper; 2020 Vermeer 42" Log Grapppler; 2020 Vermeer Rotating Grapppler; 2020
16 Felling Equipment Trailer; and 2010 Vermeer SC292 Stump Grinder (the "Equipment") to Davey
17 Tree Expert Company ("Buyer") for $97,400. Mot. at 2.

18 The sale proceeds are to be paid directly to Commercial Credit Group ("CCG"). The Debtor
19 asserts that CCG has a duly perfected security interest in the equipment that secures a loan to Debtor 20 with a current balance of more than $2,000,000. Mot. at 2. The Debtor does not supply a copy of 21 the security agreement, loan, or UCC-1 as part of the Motion. Nor does it do anything to 22 substantiate CCG's purported security interest.

23 The Motion does not value the Equipment, nor does the Motion describe any marketing 24 performed by the Debtor whatsoever with respect to the Equipment. The basis for determining the 25 sale is in the best interest of the estate is simply that "the sale of the equipment Debtor no longer 26 needs will result in lowering Debtor's operating expenses while paying down Debtor's obligation to 27 Commercial Credit Group and is therefore in the best interest of the estate." Doc# 97-1.
28

1 Most egregiously – and coupled with the absence of any marketing or valuation whatsoever –
2 the Motion does not address the fact that the Debtor has a host of connections to the Buyer. First,
3 Anvil is informed and believes that Richard Kingsborough works for the Buyer. Second, and 4 beyond Anvil’s information and belief, there really is no question that a child of the Debtor’s 5 principals (and a former Anvil employee and before that a Debtor employee) currently works for the 6 Buyer. A screenshot from her publicly viewable LinkedIn profile follows below.<sup>1</sup>

11 III. GOVERNING LAW

12 Bankruptcy Code § 363(b) authorizes the non-ordinary course sale of property of the estate 13 following notice and a hearing. “In any sale of estate assets, the ultimate purpose is to obtain the 14 highest price for the property sold.” In re Wilde Horse Enters., Inc., 136 B.R. 830, 841 (Bankr. C.D.
15 Cal. 1991). “In approving any sale outside the ordinary course of business, the court must not only 16 articulate a sufficient business reason for the sale, it must further find it is in the best interest of the 17 estate, i.e. it is fair and reasonable, that it has been given adequate marketing, that it has been 18 negotiated and proposed in good faith, that the purchaser is proceeding in good faith, and that it is an 19 “arms-length” transaction.” In re Wilde Horse Enters., Inc., 136 B.R. 830, 841 (Bankr. C.D. Cal.
20 1991).

21 Standing alone, a § 363(b) sale does nothing whatsoever to liens against the property of the 22 estate. Only a sale approved under Bankruptcy Code § 363(f) is free and clear of liens. In re Payne, 23 512 B.R. 421, 427 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 2014) (“Property of the estate may be sold subject to liens, 24 claims and encumbrances under § 363(b), or may be sold free and clear of liens, claims, and 25 encumbrances under § 363(f).”). The Debtor’s Motion, however, is decidedly not a § 363(f) motion.
26 It offers no evidence or argument with respect to § 363(f)(1)-(5) and it fails to comply with B.L.R.
27

28 <sup>1</sup> Available at <https://www.linkedin.com/in/kelli-kingsborough-5a1a22116> (last visited April 29, 2025).

1 6004-1 (requiring specific notice provisions, evidence relating to 363(f), and identification of the 2 basis for the sale under 363(f). Thus, were the Bankruptcy Court to approve the sale (and it should 3 not be), the property sold would continue to be subject to liens, claims, and encumbrances.

4 Furthermore, applicable state law does not cause liens to be avoided through the non-5 consensual disposition of collateral. “A security interest . . . continues in collateral notwithstanding 6 [the] sale . . . thereof unless the secured party authorized the disposition free of the security interest .
7 . . .” Cal. Com. Code § 9315; see, e.g., United States v. Handy & Harman, 750 F.2d 777, 780 (9th
8 Cir. 1984) (“As a general rule, when collateral subject to a security interest is sold, the security 9 interest continues in both the collateral and in the proceeds generated by the sale. [Citation.]”).

10 Finally, in the context of the non-consensual disposition of collateral subject to liens, the 11 security interest attaches to identifiable proceeds of the collateral, i.e., the cash. Cal. Com. Code § 12 9315.

13 IV. DISCUSSION

14 A. Anvil’s Lien Survives The Sale

15 The Debtor proposes selling the Equipment to the Buyer under Bankruptcy Code § 363(b).
16 The Debtor neglects to address that the Equipment remains subject to Anvil’s UCC-1 (along with the 17 purported blanket lien of CCG in so far as there is no evidence that CCG authorized the sale free and 18 clear of its UCC-1). The Buyer will take the Equipment subject to Anvil’s lien as well as, perhaps, 19 the lien of CCG and others. Anvil reserves the right to exercise its state law rights with respect to 20 the Equipment and very well may conduct a public sale of the Equipment under Article 9 of the 21 UCC following its sale. In other words, Anvil does not authorize the disposition of its collateral free 22 of the security interest. Cal. Com. Code § 9315.

23 B. Proceeds From The Sale Are Collateral Of Secured Creditors, Not Debtor Property

24 To the extent any proceeds are generated from the sale of the Equipment, those proceeds are 25 Anvil’s cash collateral. Cal. Com. Code § 9315. Anvil requests that any order authorizing the sale
26 of the Equipment explicitly provide that Anvil’s lien on the Equipment shall attach to any and all 27 proceeds from the sale without any further action by Anvil. The Debtor has not provided any 28

1 evidence that CCG's lien is senior to Anvil's lien providing a basis to turn over the sale proceeds to 2 CCG or otherwise. If a sale is approved, the proceeds should be held pending proof on that point.

3 C. Undisclosed Sale Terms

4 The Motion is scant on details of the proposed sale. Further, these details matter. In re
5 Wilde Horse Enters., Inc., 136 B.R. 830, 841 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1991). First, the Debtor should be 6 required to explain what connections the Debtor has with the Buyer along with the value of the 7 property being sold and the efforts made to maximize the sale price (i.e., good faith). Nothing in the 8 Motion explains how this sale reflects a good deal for the Debtor (i.e., fair and reasonable). Indeed, 9 the Motion doesn't even try to say what the Equipment is worth. Moreover, the Debtor completely 10 omits that, at minimum, a child of its principals works for the Buyer and previously worked for the 11 Debtor. That conflict – indicating the absence of an arms-length transaction, along with the absence
12 of evidence of value – makes it hard to see this transaction meeting the bar set by Bankruptcy Code 13 § 363(b).

14 Beyond a good faith and a fair and reasonable sale, the transaction specific details matter...
15 is there a written agreement describing the obligations of the parties? What representations did the 16 Debtor make to the Buyer about the Equipment? What disclosures did the Debtor make to the Buyer
17 about the Equipment about liens against it? Where the Buyer is buying subject to liens, one wonders 18 about the liability that will be created for the Estate when the other shoe drops, and Anvil (or some 19 other secured party), exercises its valid state law rights with respect to the Equipment that the Buyer
20 just purchased. This certainly suggests that the Debtor does not even have a good business reason 21 for the sale.

22 V. CONCLUSION

23 Anvil respectfully requests that the Motion be denied and in the event the Motion is granted
24 that (a) any sale order explicitly provide that any purchase is subject to Anvil's lien, and (b) that 25 Anvil's lien shall attach to the proceeds from the sale without any further action by Anvil.
